15th World Scout Moot 2017

WHAT	The 15th World Scout Moot is coming, and we can't wait for you to get out there and experience the adventure of a lifetime! The Australian Contingent will include both Scouts and Guides from across the country joining 5000+ international Scouts in Reykjavik, Iceland. Experience the true beauty of volcanic mountain ranges. Roam the streets of the engrossing Icelandic villages and towns. Take in the prestige of the world's oldest parliament. Walk on an ancient glacier or explore the beautiful ice-caves. Live and learn in the family of our international Scouting community. Develop yourself as an individual and experience a culture unique in our world. The Australian Contingent will also be running optional Pre and Post tours for those who have a hunger for more adventure. Held in Scandinavia, our pre tour will take you to experience the wild and majestic beauty of a region unlike anything we have in Australia. Rounding off the trip will be an expedition to Kandersteg International Scout Centre in Switzerland. Nestled in the Swiss Alps you can be sure to expect fun and excitement with friends made at the Moot For further information go to Australian Scout Contingent website: http://www.wsm2017.com/
