Kent Scouts International Jamboree

WHAT

The Kent International Jamboree is a week- long International camp, held in the heart of Kent every four years. We welcome Scouts and Guides from across the globe to take part in seven days of fun, friends and adventure.

The Theme of KIJ2017 will be World Scouting. Our objectives are to Excite, Motivate and Challenge the young people of the Scouting and Girl Guiding movements worldwide to help achieve our values of Celebrating International Scouting, demonstrating unity of Scouting, Promoting wellbeing and harmony of Scouting and showing concern for all communities.

This is a co-ed event for Guides and Scouts
